WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over thirty years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is, of course, regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce, telling them what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the most unimaginable cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician, whose unimpeachable medicine dealers may give you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trade with your health. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take his advice and be well.

On receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only, we will send free to any address a paper-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's great "Common Sense Medical Adviser," and how very much pleased I am with it. A crisp, reliable, and how could it tempt me to part with it?

French cloth will be sent for 10 cents extra. To pay the cost of this more handsome and more durable binding. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Ass'n, Buffalo, N. Y.

Reads with you whether you continue the prevailing tobacco habit. NO TOBACCO. No nervousness, no expense, no loss of time, no loss of health, no loss of money. It is the only remedy for the tobacco habit. It is the only remedy for the tobacco habit. It is the only remedy for the tobacco habit.

GIRL CAPTIVE IN HAREMS.

A dispatch from Paris says: There is a very interesting story back of the abduction of the beautiful Italian girl Silvia Zimeli, who was successively spirited into two Turkish harems and only released finally on Italy's threat to make war on the Sultan.

Silvia, a witching, dark-eyed beauty in her teens, started with her father about five months ago for a tour through the Levant. At Stambul the young woman's brilliant beauty attracted the attention of a high official from the interior of Turkey, and he had her captured the next day and taken to his far-away harem.

After a search that lasted for weeks the Italian Ambassador traced the girl and demanded her release, with war as the only alternative, and the Sultan ordered compliance.

When Silvia was brought back to Constantinople, however, one of the Sultan's ministers saw her, fell in love with her and decided to make her his wife. Like the first official, he placed her in a harem.

When new negotiations were begun for her release the influential Minister pleaded that the girl, although evidently of tender years, was of age, and therefore her father could not interfere. On Wednesday, however, the Italian Ambassador, upon his threat to sever diplomatic relations if the girl should not be released by nightfall, won his point, and she has just been restored to her father. The girl appeared to be in her health, but was broken-hearted and refused absolutely to make a statement as to her captivity.

Notwithstanding all these facts, it is now maintained in diplomatic dispatches from Rome that the girl was not kidnapped, but went successively to the two Turkish harems of her own free will, and that, as her father opposed her passion in the first instance, she finally ran away to her more distinguished lover's harem.

CLAIM AMERICA'S AID.

The London papers publish extracts from a document emanating from the office of the Secretary of State at Pretoria and countersigned by Secretary of State Reitz. It says:

"We, to a great extent, depend on America and Europe for our foodstuffs. It will be critical on the part of the Great Powers to suffer this little nation to perish by famine since the sword has failed."

Since, in 1870, the President of the United States acknowledged our republic as a sovereign State, Americans have flocked here in numbers. In every instance the hand of fellowship has been extended to them. Not a single case of disagreement is on record; but with the first war note of the oppressor we are informed that America is acting in league with the enemy.

If our sister republic has no sympathy with us, if the boasted condescension of the British is to be preferred to sincerity and truth, we will no longer believe in the justice and integrity of the American nation, and her profession of Christianity we consider an empty sound."

DRUNKEN BUTLER.

A swell dinner party at the palatial Fifth Avenue home of Howard Gould in New York was rudely broken up Friday night by a drunken butler.

John Tibbs, the butler in question, paid $5 for his spree in court Saturday morning, Mr. Gould appearing against him. Tibbs went into the wine cellar alone Friday afternoon and drew a few corks on his own account.

When the guests appeared at the dinner in the evening the butler attempted to take possession of the house and make things embarrassing for the Goulds.

He was ordered from the house but refused to go. Mr. Gould drew a roll of bills from his pocket and made the man tempting offers to leave but he declined. Finally an officer was called and Tibbs arrested. The guests at the dinner party quietly left the house during the excitement.

TUGBOAT TURNED A SOMERSAULT.

The big harbor tug Pretoria ran hard and fast on the big rock known as Hog's Back, in Hellgate, New York, on Saturday. Shortly after the tugboat Mischief steamed up and under-tack to pull the Pretoria off. For nearly an hour she strained without budging the larger vessel. Then, suddenly, the rope snapped. So great had the strain been on the little tug that when the line parted she turned completely over, and went to the bottom like a shot. There was a deckhand, it is supposed to have gone to the bottom with the unlucky Mischief. The other men were picked up.

FAIR SUCIDE AT A WEDDING.

While witnessing the marriage of another woman to the man she loved in the fashionable Church of St. Clotilde, in Paris, on Thursday, a beautiful and highly-connected young woman, who recently wedded against her will, stabbed herself in the heart and died. Influential friends have managed to suppress names and details.

Shortly afterward I gave him a second dose. The cough was cured almost instantly. I always keep a bottle within reach at night for my children."
